Message

I am happy to know that the Draupadi Trust, New Delhi is actively involved in the enhancement of socio-economic status of deprived communities. It is heartening to note that this organisation is also working for improving the cultural heritage of Kampilya.

It is commendable that the Trust is serving the humanity by undertaking various welfare activities for needy and poor. I hope that the social work being done by the organisation would benefit the weaker sections of the society.

On this occasion, I extend my greetings to the Draupadi Trust and wish the organisation all success in its future activities.
