MESSAGE

It gives me great pleasure to learn that Draupadi Trust is completing ten years of work in the socio-cultural field, and is bringing out a special publication to mark this occasion. I convey my good wishes for the successful publication of this volume.

Organizations working in the sphere of culture play a significant role in preserving our tangible & intangible heritage. The Ministry of Culture also provides opportunities and support to such organizations to revive and enrich our traditional ethos and performing arts.

I congratulate the Trust's initiative to organize the Panchal Maha Utsav, to showcase the rich cultural heritage from different parts of India, focussing on the famous character in Mahabharata, Queen Draupadi.

I extend my best wishes to this event.

Chandresh Kumari Katoch
